- c. Where they do not designate a voting member, and only one is present at a meeting, the person present may cast a unit vote, just as though he or she owned the unit individually, and without establishing the concurrence of the absent person.

B. Each apartment, shall include that part of the building containing the apartment that lies within the boundaries of the apartment, which boundaries are as follows:

(i) UPPER & LOWER BOUNDARIES:

The upper and lower boundaries of the apartment shall be the following boundaries extended to an intersection with the perimetrical boundaries:

REC 5573 NO 228

F. The "ASSOCIATION" a non-profit corporation referred to hereinabove is hereby granted a perpetual easement over all of the common elements for the purpose of repair, maintenance and replacement of all common elements as that term has been heretofore defined.

G. The owners of the respective condominium units agree that if any portion of a condominium unit or common element encroaches upon another, a valid easement for the encroachment and the maintenance of same, so long as it stands, shall and does exist. In the event the multifamily structure is partially or totally destroyed, and then rebuilt, the owners of the "condominium parcels" agree that encroachments of parts of the "common elements" or "condominium units" as afordescribed due to construction shall be permitted, and that a valid easement for said encroachments and maintenance thereof shall exist.

H. That each owner and occupant of a condominium unit shall comply with the provisions of this Declaration, the By-Laws, decisions and resolutions of the Association, as lawfully amended from time to time, and failure to comply with such provisions, decisions and resolutions shall be grounds for an action to recover sums for damages or for injunctive relief and all costs incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees.

I. This Declaration may be amended at any regular or special meeting of the unit owners of this condominium, called and convened in accordance with the By-Laws by the affirmative vote of three-quarters (75%) of the unit owners. All amendments shall be recorded and certified, as required by the Condominium Act. No amendment shall change any condominium parcel nor a common unit's proportionate share of the common expenses or common surplus, nor the voting rights appurtenant to any unit, unless the record owners thereof and all record owners of mortgages, or other voluntarily placed liens thereon shall join in the execution of the amendment. No amendment shall be passed which shall impair or prejudice the rights and priorities of any institutional first mortgagee, without its consent.

J. The operation of the condominium property shall be governed by By-Laws, which are set forth in a document entitled By-Laws of HYDE PARK TOWERS, INC., a non-profit Florida corporation, which is annexed to this Declaration, marked EXHIBIT 4, and made a part hereof. No modification of or amendment to the By-Laws of said Association shall be valid unless set forth in or annexed to a duly recorded Amendment to this Declaration. The By-Laws may be amended in the manner provided for therein, but no amendment to said By-Laws shall be adopted which would affect or impair the validity or priority of any mortgage covering any condominium parcel or parcels.

K. That no owner of a condominium parcel may exempt himself from liability for his contribution toward the common expenses by waiver of the use and enjoyment of any of the common elements, or by the abandonment of his condominium unit.

VIII

ASSESSMENTS

The Board of Directors of the Association shall approve annual budgets in advance for each fiscal year, and the budgets shall project anticipated income and estimated expenses in sufficient detail to show separate estimates for all corporate taxes, which may be levied by either the United States Government or the State of Florida or any additional taxing authority, insurance for the Common Elements and Units, operating expense, maintenance expense, repairs, utilities, replacement reserve, and a reasonable operating reserve, for the Common Elements.

The total regular annual assessment for each fiscal year assessed against each UNIT (and the interest in Common Elements appurtenant thereto), and all members owning an interest in each UNIT shall be the member's percentage ownership interest of the Association's total annual budget for such fiscal year.

Assessments for emergency expenses which cannot be paid from the assessments for recurring expenses shall be made only after notice of the need therefor to the UNIT owners concerned. After such notice, the assessment shall become effective and it shall be due after thirty (30) days notice thereof in such manner as the Board of Directors of the Association may require.

After adoption of a budget and determination of the annual assessment per UNIT, the Association shall assess such sum by promptly notifying all owners by delivering or mailing notice thereof to the Voting Member representing each UNIT at such member's most recent address as shown by the books and records of the Association. One-twelfth (1/12) of the annual assessment levied against each UNIT shall be due and payable in advance to the Association on the first day of each and every month, whether or not members are sent or actually receive written notice thereof. In addition, the Association shall have the power to levy equal special assessments against each UNIT, if necessary, to cover the aforesaid types of expenses and shall have the power to levy other special assessments as provided herein which may or may not be equal per UNIT.

The record owners of each UNIT shall be personally liable, jointly and severally, to the ASSOCIATION for the payment of all assessments, regular or special, made by the Association and for all costs for collecting delinquent assessments. In the event assessments against a UNIT are not paid within sixty (60) days after their due date, the Association shall have the right to shut off all utilities servicing such UNIT until such time as the assessments are paid or until the completion of foreclosure on a UNIT by an institutional first mortgagee.

Assessments that are unpaid for over thirty (30) days after due shall bear interest at the rate of eight per cent (8%) per annum until paid.

Every assessment, regular or special, made hereunder and costs incurred in collecting same shall be a lien against the members against which the assessment is made, and such lien shall arise in favor of the Association and shall come into effect upon recordation in the public records of the county in which the Condominium parcel is located, of a claim of lien stating the description of the Condominium parcel, the name of the record owner, the amount due and the date when due, and the lien for all sums due thereafter shall date back to said date, and shall be deemed to be prior to and superior to the creation of any Homestead status for any UNIT and to any subsequent lien of encumbrance, except an "institutional first mortgage" as hereinafter defined. The Board of Directors may take such action as they deem necessary to collect assessments by personal action or by enforcing and foreclosing said lien and may settle and compromise same if in the best interests of the Association. The delinquent members shall pay all costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees, for filing any action or a suit enforcing and foreclosing a lien, and the lien shall be deemed to cover such costs. The Association shall be entitled to bid at any sale held pursuant to a suit to foreclose an assessment lien and to apply against said bid all sums due the Association for assessments, interest and collection costs, the foregoing remedies of the Association in recovering unpaid assessments owing by members shall be in addition to all of the remedies provided the Association by the Statutes of the State of Florida.

As to priority between the lien of a recorded mortgage and the lien for any assessment, the lien for an assessment shall be subordinate and inferior to any recorded institutional first mortgage regardless of when said assessment was due, but not to any other mortgage. For the purposes of this instrument, an "institutional first mortgage" shall be defined as a first mortgage originally executed and delivered to a bank, savings and loan association or insurance company authorized to transact business in the State of Florida. Upon the recordation of a deed or other evidence of title issued pursuant to the foreclosure of an institutional first mortgage, any lien for assessments due and payable prior to such recordation shall be deemed abolished, but the lien for assessments due and payable after the recordation of said deed or other evidence of title shall not be impaired and shall be effective as to the grantees of such deed or other evidence of title.

Any person who acquires an interest in a UNIT, except through foreclosure of an "institutional first mortgage", or any institution holding such mortgage, which may accept a deed in lieu of foreclosure, shall be personally liable and jointly and severally liable with the transferor for all unpaid assessments up to the time of the transfer of ownership. In the event a member exercises his rights of first refusal or redemption, hereinafter provided, said member shall be liable for the unpaid assessments against the UNIT and shall have the right to deduct such sums from the first refusal or redemption price paid to the purchaser or transferee.

Any person purchasing or encumbering a UNIT shall have the right to rely upon any statement made in writing by an Association officer regarding assessments against UNITS which have already been made and which are due and payable to the Association, and the Association and the members shall be bound thereby. No action or suit shall be brought to enforce by foreclosure any lien arising under this Declaration after two (2) years from the due date of any assessment therefor.

The Association may at any time require owners to maintain a minimum balance on deposit with the Association to cover future assessments. Said Deposit shall be uniform for all UNITS.

Where a holder of an institutional mortgage of record, or other purchaser of a condominium parcel at a foreclosure sale of an institutional mortgage, obtains title to a condominium parcel as a result of foreclosure, such acquirer of title, its successors or assigns, shall not be liable for the share of the common expenses of assessments by the association unpaid, chargeable to such condominium parcel, which accrued and became due prior to the acquisition of title to such condominium parcel by such acquirer. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses, collectible from all condominium parcels, including such acquirer, his grantees, successors or assigns.

IX.

INSURANCE: The insurance, other than Title Insurance, which shall be carried upon the condominium property and the property of the condominium unit owners, shall be governed by the following provisions:

1. Authority to Purchase. All insurance policies upon the condominium property shall be purchased by the Association for the benefit of the Association and the condominium unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, and this provision shall be made for the issuance of Certificates of Mortgage Endorsements to the mortgagees of condominium unit owners. Such policies and copies of endorsements shall be deposited with the Insurance Trustee.

a. Each individual unit owner shall be responsible for purchasing at this own expense, liability insurance to cover accidents occurring within his own unit, and for purchasing insurance upon his own personal property, and living expense insurance, but all such insurance must be obtained from an insurance company from which the Association obtains coverage against the same risk, liability or peril, if the Association has such coverage.

2. Coverage

a. Casualty. All buildings and improvements upon the land, and all personal property, included in the condominium property, shall be insured in an amount equal to the maximum insurable value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. Any casualty loss shall be reported within forty-eight (48) hours, in writing, to all interested mortgagees, by the Association and condominium unit owner. Such coverage shall afford protection against:-

(i) Loss or damage by fire or other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement.

(ii) Such other risk as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use, including but not limited to vandalism and malicious mischief.

b. Public Liability . . . in such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors of the Association, with cross-liability endorsements to cover liability of the condominium unit owners as a group, to a condominium unit owner.

3. Premiums upon Insurance Policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association.

4. Assured. All Insurance Policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association and the condominium unit owners and their mortgagees, as their interest may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering casualty losses shall be paid to the HOLLYWOOD BANK AND TRUST COMPANY, AS TRUSTEE, or any other Bank or Title Insurance Company in Florida, with trust powers, as may be approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, which Trustee is herein referred to as the "Insurance Trustee". The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for payments nor for the renewal or the sufficiency of policies, nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and hold the same in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated herein, and for the benefit of the condominium unit owners and their mortgagees, in the following shares, but which shares need not be set forth on the records of the Insurance Trustee:

a. Common elements. Proceeds on account of common elements shall be held in as many undivided shares as there are condominium units, the shares of each condominium unit owner being the same as his share in the common elements.

b. Condominium Units. Proceeds on account of condominium units shall be held for the owners of damaged units in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each unit owner, which cost shall be determined by the Association.

c. Mortgagees. In the event a mortgage endorsement has been issued as to the condominium unit, the share of the unit owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the unit owner, as their interest may appear.

5. Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of Insurance Policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners, in the following manner:

a. Expense of the Trust. All expenses of the Insurance Trustee shall be first paid, or provision made therefor.

b. Reconstruction or Repair. If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the costs thereof, as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs, shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a condominium unit and may be enforced by such mortgagee.

c. Failure to Reconstruct or Repair. If it is determined, in the manner elsewhere provided, that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to condominium unit owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them, and delivered to the mortgagees. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of a unit and may be enforced by such mortgagee.

d. Certificate. In making distribution to condominium unit owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a Certificate of the Association as to the name of the unit owners and their respective shares of the distribution, approved in writing by an Attorney, Title Insurance or Abstract Company, authorized to do business in the state of Florida.

e. Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed Agent for each condominium unit owner, to adjust all claims of such owner arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association.

III. Reconstruction or Repair after Casualty.

a. Determination to Reconstruct or repair. If any part of the Condominium property shall be damaged by casualty, whether or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

(i) Common element. If the damaged improvement is a common element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the condominium shall be terminated.

(ii) Apartment Building.

(a) Partial Destruction. If the damaged improvement is part of the apartment building, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired if any apartment in the damaged building is tenantable.

(b) Total Destruction. If the apartment building is so damaged that no apartment therein is tenantable, the building shall not be reconstructed unless the owners of one-half (1/2) of the number of apartments in the destroyed building shall so agree in writing, within sixty (60) days after the casualty.

(iii) Plans and Specifications. Any such reconstruction or repair must be substantially in accordance with the Plans and Specifications for the original building, or as the building was last constructed, or according to plans approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(iv) Certificate. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a Certificate of the Association to determine whether or not the damaged property is to be reconstructed or repaired.

(v) Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of one apartment for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the apartment owner, then the apartment owner shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances, the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty shall be that of the Association.

(vi) Estimate of Costs. Immediately after a casualty causing damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility of maintenance and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to rebuild or repair, so as to place the damaged property in condition as good as that before the casualty.

(vii) Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair by the Association, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged property, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds to pay the estimated costs. If at any time during reconstruction or repair, or upon completion of reconstruction or repair, the funds for the payment of the costs thereof are insufficient, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged property, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such assessments against apartment owners for damage to apartments shall be in proportion to the cost of reconstruction or repair of their respective apartments. Such assessments on account of damage to common elements shall be in proportion to the owner's share in the common elements.

(viii) Construction Funds. The funds for payment of costs of reconstruction and repair after casualty for which the Association is responsible, which shall consist of proceeds of insurance held by the Insurance Trustee and funds collected by the Association from assessments against apartment owners, shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the following manner:

(a) Association. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair exceeds the total of the annual assessments for recurring expense to be made during the year in which the casualty occurs, then the sums paid upon assessments to meet such costs shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee. In all other cases, the Association shall hold the sums paid upon such assessments and disburse the same in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair.

(b) Insurance Trustee. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of a casualty, and the sums deposited with the Insurance Trustee by the Association from collections of assessments against apartment owners on account of each casualty, shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner:

(i) Apartment Owner. The portion of insurance proceeds representing damage for which the responsibility of reconstruction and repair lies with the apartment owner shall be paid by the Insurance Trustee to the apartment owner, or if there is a mortgagee endorsement, then to the apartment owner and the mortgagee jointly, who may use such proceeds as they may be advised.

(ii) Association - Lesser Damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair, which is the responsibility of the Association is less than the total of the annual assessments for recurring expense to be made during the year in which the casualty occurs, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs upon the order of the Association; provided, however, that upon request to the Insurance Trustee by a mortgagee which is a beneficiary of an insurance policy, the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, such fund shall be disbursed in the manner hereafter provided for the reconstruction and repair of major damage.

(iii) Association - Major Damage. If the amount of estimated costs of reconstruction and repair which is the responsibility of the Association is more than the total of the annual assessments for recurring expense to be made during the year in which the casualty occurs, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner required by the Board of Directors of the Association and upon approval of an Architect qualified to practice in Florida, and employed by the Association to supervise the work.

(iv) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair shall be from insurance proceeds; and if there is a balance in a construction fund after payment of all costs of the reconstruction and repair for which the fund is established, such balance shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of the fund in the manner elsewhere provided.

(v) Certificate. Notwithstanding the provisions herein, the Insurance Trustee shall not be required to determine whether or not a disbursement is to be made from the construction fund, nor to determine the payee nor the amount to be paid. Instead, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a Certificate of the Association stating that the sums to be paid are due and properly payable, and stating the name of the payee and the amount to be paid; provided that when a Mortgagee is herein required to be named as payee, the Insurance Trustee shall also name the Mortgagee as payee; and further provided that when the Association or a mortgagee, which is the beneficiary of an Insurance Policy, the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, so requires, the approval of an Architect named by the Association shall be first obtained by the Association.

MAINTENANCE OF COMMUNITY INTERESTS

In order to maintain a community of congenial residents who are financially responsible and thus protect the value of the apartments, the transfer of apartments by any owner other than the developer shall be subject to the following provisions as long as the condominium exists, and the apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land, which provisions each apartment owner covenants to observe:

B. Lease No apartment owner may dispose of an apartment or any interest in an apartment by lease without approval of the Association, except to an apartment owner.

C. Gift If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by gift, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

D. Devise or Inheritance If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by devise or inheritance, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

E. Other Transfers If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by any manner not considered in the foregoing sub-sections, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

Section 2. APPROVAL BY ASSOCIATION The approval of the Association that is required for the transfer of ownership of apartments shall be obtained in the following manner:

A. Notice to Association

(i) Sale: An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser and such other information concerning the intended purchaser as the Association may reasonably require. Such notice at the apartment owner's option may include a demand by the apartment owner that the Association furnish a purchaser of the apartment if the proposed purchaser is not approved; and if such demand is made, the notice shall be accompanied by an executed copy of the proposed contract to sell.

(ii) Lease: An apartment owner intending to make bona fide lease of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association Notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended lessee and such other information concerning the Association may reasonably require and an executed copy of the proposed lease.

(iii) Gift, Devise or Inheritance; Other Transfers: An apartment owner who has obtained his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or by any other manner not previously considered, shall give to the Association Notice of the acquiring of his title, together with such other information concerning the apartment owner as the Association reasonably requires, and a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the owner's title.

(iv) Failure to Give Notice: If the above required notice to the Association is not given, then at any time after receiving knowledge of a transaction or event transferring ownership or possession of an apartment, the Association at its election and without notice may approve or disapprove the transaction or ownership. If the Association disapproves the transaction or ownership, the Association shall proceed as if it had received the required notice on the date of such disapproval.

B. Certificate of Approval

(i) Sale: If the proposed transaction is a sale then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. If approved the approval shall be stated in a Certificate executed by the President and Secretary of the Association, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, at the expense of the purchaser.

(ii) Lease: If the proposed transaction is a lease, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information, the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. If approved the approval shall be stated in a Certificate executed by the President and Secretary of the Association, in recordable form, which at the election of the Association, shall be delivered to the Lessee, or shall be recorded in the public records of Broward County, Florida, at the expense of the Lessee.

(iii) Gift, Devise or Inheritance; Other Transfers: If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the continuance of the apartment owners ownership of his apartment. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a Certificate executed by the President and Secretary of the Association, which shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County Florida, at the expense of the apartment owner.

C. Approval of Corporate Owner or Purchaser

Inasmuch as the condominium may be used only for residential purposes, and a corporation cannot occupy an apartment for such use, if the apartment owner or purchaser of an apartment is a corporation, the approval of ownership by the corporation may be conditioned by requiring that all persons occupying the apartment be approved by the association.

Section 3. DISAPPROVAL BY ASSOCIATION

If the Association shall disapprove a transfer or ownership of an apartment, the matter shall be disposed in the following manner:

A. Sale: If the proposed transaction is a sale and if the notice of sale given by the apartment owner shall so demand, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association shall deliver or mail by registered mail to the apartment owner an Agreement to purchase the apartment concerned by a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:

(1) At the option of the purchaser to be stated in the Agreement, the price to be paid shall be that stated in the disapproved contract to sell or shall be the fair market value determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the Arbitrator shall be two appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser.

(ii) The purchase price shall be paid in cash.

(iii) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days after the delivery or mailing of the agreement to purchase, or within ten (10) days after the determination of the sales price if such is by arbitration, whichever is the later.

(iv) A Certificate of the Association executed by its President and Secretary and approving the purchaser shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, at the expense of the purchaser.

(v) If the Association shall fail to provide a purchaser upon the demand of the apartment owner in the manner provided, or if a purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, then notwithstanding the disapproval, the proposed transaction shall be deemed to have been approved and the Association shall furnish a Certificate of Approval as elsewhere provided, which shall be recorded in the public records of Broward County, Florida, at the expense of the Purchaser.

B. Lease: If the proposed transaction is a lease, the apartment owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing and the lease shall not be made.

C. Gifts, Devise or Inheritance; other transfers: If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt from the apartment owner of the notice and information required to be furnished, the Association shall deliver or mail by registered mail to the apartment owner an agreement to purchase the apartment concerned by a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:

(i) The sale price shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such agreement. In the absence of agreement as to price, the price shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrator shall be two appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser.

(ii) The purchase price shall be in cash.

(iii) The sale shall be closed within ten (10) days following the determination of the sale price.

(iv) A Certificate of the Association executed by its President and Secretary and approving the purchaser shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, at the expense of the purchaser.

(v) If the Association shall fail to provide a purchaser as required by this instrument or if a purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, then notwithstanding the disapproval such ownership shall be deemed to have been approved and the Association shall furnish a Certificate of Approval as elsewhere provided which shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, at the expense of the apartment owner.

Section 4. MORTGAGE.

No apartment owner may mortgage his apartment nor any interest in it without the approval of the Association except to a bank, life insurance company or a savings and loan association, or to a vendor to secure a portion or all of the purchase price. The approval of any other mortgagee may be upon conditions determined by the Association or may be arbitrarily withheld.

Section 5. EXCEPTIONS

The foregoing provisions of this section entitled Maintenance of Community Interest shall not apply to a transfer to or purchase by a bank, life insurance company or savings and loan association that acquires its title as the result of owning a mortgage upon the apartment concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor, his successors or assigns, or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such provisions apply to a transfer, sale or lease by a bank, life insurance company or savings and loan association that so acquires its title. Neither shall such provisions require the approval of a purchaser who acquires the title to an apartment at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding provided by law, such as but not limited to execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale.

In addition, the foregoing provisions of this Section entitled "Maintenance of Community Interests" shall not be applicable to A. J. W. INC., a Florida corporation, which is recognized as the Developer of the condominium project, and which corporation is irrevocably empowered to sell, lease or rent condominium units to any purchaser or lessee approved by it. The said developer shall have the right to transact any business necessary to consummate sales of units, including but not limited to the right to maintain models, have signs, employees in the office; use the elevators and common elements, and to show apartments. Sales office, signs and all items pertaining to sales shall not be considered common elements, and remain the property of the developer. In the event there are unsold parcels, the developer retains the right to be the owner of such unsold parcels under the same terms and conditions as all other parcel owners in said condominium, and the said developer, as parcel owner, shall contribute to the common expenses in the same manner as other parcel owners.

Section 6. UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS

Any sale, mortgage, or lease not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be void unless subsequently approved by the Association.

shall comply with the terms of the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws and the regulations adopted pursuant to those documents, and all of such as they may be amended from time to time. Failure of an apartment owner to comply with such documents and regulations shall entitle the Association or other apartment owners to the following relief in addition to the remedies provided by the condominium act:

A. Negligence An apartment owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his negligence or by that of any member of his family or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. An apartment owner shall pay the Association the amount of any increase in its insurance premiums occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of an apartment or its appurtenances, or of the common elements, by the apartment owner.

B. Costs and Attorneys Fees In any proceeding arising because of an alleged failure of an apartment owner or the Association to comply with the terms of the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation of the Association, the By-Laws or the regulations adopted pursuant to them, and the documents and regulations as they may be amended from time to time, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney's fees as may be awarded by the court.

C. No Waiver of Rights The failure of the Association or any apartment owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, the By-Laws or the regulations shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

ARTICLE XI

SEVERABILITY

Section 1. The invalidity in whole or in part of any covenant or restriction, or any section, sub-section, sentence, clause, phrase, or word, or other provision of this Declaration of Condominium and the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and regulations of the Association shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions.

Default

Owner of a condominium parcel does not pay any sums, charges or assessments required to be paid by the Association, within thirty (30) days after the date, the Association, acting on behalf of the Association, may foreclose the lien on the condominium parcel. In said foreclosure action, the Plaintiff shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver, and such appointment shall be made by the Court as a matter of strict right to the Association, and with reference to be the urgency or insolvency of the value of the property party to be sold, or the solvency or insolvency of the owner party defendant to such suit.

To further secure the payment of this indebtedness, the condominium parcel owner, by virtue of his acceptance of the conveyance of the condominium parcel to him, shall hereby sell, assign, transfer and set over unto the Association, subject to the rights of institutional mortgagee, all of the rents, issues and profits of his condominium parcel, and this assignment shall become operative upon any default being made by said condominium parcel owner.

If the Association becomes the owner of the condominium parcel in question, it shall offer said parcel for sale and whenever such a sale is consummated, it shall, from the proceeds received from said sale, deduct all sums of money due it for monthly assessments and charges, all costs incurred in the bringing of the law suit in question, including reasonable attorney's fees, and any sums paid by the association in purchasing said parcel or paid as mortgage payments on said parcel, and any and all expenses incurred in the resale of the condominium property in question, which shall include, but not be limited to advertising expenses, real estate brokerage fees and expenses necessary for the repair and refurbishing of the condominium unit in question so that it could be sold. All the monies remaining after deducting the foregoing items of expense shall be returned directly to the former owner of the condominium parcel in question.

In the event of violation by the owner of the condominium parcel of any of the provisions of the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation, or Restrictions and By-Laws, as are now or hereafter constituted, the Association may, by direction of its Board of Directors, bring an action for abatement of the existing condition or situation, and shall have the right to petition for judicial cancellation and termination of the condominium parcel owner's ownership interest in his parcel. If such remedy be granted by a Court of appropriate jurisdiction, then the interest of the violating parcel owner shall be foreclosed in accordance with the then existing Florida laws relating to the foreclosing of either mortgages or liens, whichever shall be more applicable.

However, prior to the institution of any legal action for any specific purpose, other than the non-payment of any sums of money that are due the condominium Association as are contemplated herein, the Board of Directors shall give thirty (30) days' notice, in writing, of said violation to the condominium parcel owner. If the violation shall not be abated within the (30) days of said notice, or the required monies shall not be paid or if the violation be persistently renewed, or the delinquency be persistently continued, the Board of Directors may cause an action to be instituted in the nature of a suit for abatement of nuisance. If the Association be successful in the prosecution of this lawsuit, relief to be sought in addition to abatement of the nuisance can be foreclosing by judicial sale of the aggravating condominium parcel owner's interest in his condominium parcel. Should the Association be successful in any action it brings, the defendant condominium parcel owner agrees to pay all costs incurred including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Each owner of a condominium parcel, for himself, his heirs, successors and assigns, agrees to the foregoing provision relating to default and abatement of nuisance, regardless of the harshness of the remedy available to the Association, and regardless of the availability of other equally adequate legal procedures. It is the intent of all owners of condominium parcels to give to the Association a method and procedure which will enable it, at all times, to operate on a business-like basis, to collect those monies due and owing it from owners of condominium parcels, and to preserve each condominium parcel owner's right to enjoy his unit free from unreasonable restraint and nuisance.

In the event of the legal termination of an owner's interest in a condominium parcel herein, said owner or any other person or persons in possession, by and through their right of ownership, shall promptly quit and surrender said condominium unit to the Association, in good repair, ordinary wear and tear and damage by fire and other casualty excepted, and the Association shall have the right to re-enter and repossess the said condominium unit. The owner of the condominium parcel, for himself and any successor in interest, by operation of law or otherwise, hereby waives any and all notice and demand for possession, if such be required by the laws of the Municipality, County, State of Florida, or the United States of America. However, in the event of the termination of an owner's interest in a condominium parcel, as herein provided, the validity and priority of any mortgage of record encumbering a condominium parcel or parcels shall not be affected or impaired.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENT

These By-Laws may be altered, amended or added to, at any duly called meeting of the unit owners, by the affirmative vote of 3/4ths (75%) of the unit owners. Said Amendment shall be recorded and certified, as required by the Condominium Act.

Anything above to the contrary notwithstanding, prior to the first annual meeting of the membership, these By-Laws may not be amended without prior resolution requesting said Amendment from the Board of Directors of the Association.

THE FOREGOING WERE ADOPTED AS THE BY-LAWS OF THE HYDE PARK TOWERS, INC., a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, at the first meeting of the Board of Directors on the 15th day of DECEMBER, 1967.
